According to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, the eurozone debt crisis was the world's greatest threat in 2011, and in 2012, things only got worse. 1 The crisis started in 2009 when the world first realized that Greece could default on its debt. In three years, it escalated into the potential for sovereign debt defaults from Portugal, Italy, Ireland, and Spain.

Eurozone Debt Crisis: Causes, Cures, and Consequences

The European debt crisis is a multi-year debt crisis that has been taking place in the European Union since the end of 2009. Several eurozone member states were unable to repay or refinance their government debt or to bail out over-indebted banks under their national supervision without the assistance of third parties like other eurozone countries, the European Central Bank, or the International Monetary Fund. The eurozone crisis was caused by a balance-of-payments crisis. The crisis was worsene
