By the time Keith Richards met Patti Hansen, The Rolling Stones guitarist had already been married once and had three children. But once he saw the American model dancing at Studio 54, he was immediately in love. "I didn't see her again for a while, but the vision stayed in my mind," the musician wrote in his memoir "Life" (via Harper's Bazaar).. When the two did indeed meet again, that's when ...

Inside Keith Richards' Relationship With Model Patti Hansen

Keith Richards has continuously aired his feelings about the things in life that he loves and hates. The Rolling Stones' human riff-machine has never shied away from verbal sparring matches, even attacking his own bandmates on the odd occasion. Richards is an unashamed son of the blues with a fondness for reggae and, in truth, most other genres he couldn't care for, so it should come as ...

Keith Richards Sound Guide. If you want to sound like Keith Richards, there are a few main points to focus on. First and foremost is the tuning – you should practice playing in open G. This is what Keith uses most of the time. He also doesn't use the top E string at all, doesn't even put it on his guitar, but this isn't something that you should necessarily do. The second is the ...
