"Never Turn Your Back on a Friend" ensured the band modest success in Europe as a headline act but still didn't make much more of a cult dent in the States but Budgie would plow on. With a number like "Breadfan" to open their shows, fans in the USA would have to wait another three years before Wales' unique power trio would come to apply the bludgeon to their skulls.

Sparks - Never Turn Your Back On Mother Earth Lyrics ...
Never Turn Your Back on a Friend, the third and last album to feature the band's original lineup, was (and remains) a class act from beginning to end. Beneath the mythical, radiant Roger Dean cover work were molten heavy metal treasures, a few nice ballads, and even a cover tune (something the band would never try again, I believe), and yet somehow things failed to pan out for them.
