Under the New Covenant, God doesn't withhold his Spirit in this way. He disciplines us but does not forsake us (Hebrews 13:5). Sometimes we are afraid that because we have sinned, because we have grieved the Spirit (Ephesians 4:30), that he will withdraw God's presence from us and forsake us. The very fact that you long to restore your relationship with God shows that God has not left you. It is ...

A loving parent disciplines their child. It should give someone great joy to be disciplined by God. It shows that He loves you and He wants to bring you back to Him. As a child I was both spanked and put in timeout by my parents, but I know they did it out of love. They didn't want me to grow up to be wicked. They wanted me to stay on the right path. 1. Revelation 3:19 As many as I love, I ...

Just as the undisciplined body becomes sluggish and fat, the undisciplined spirit becomes weak. This is why Paul coaches Timothy: “train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come” (1 Tim 4:7-8). This verse is the cornerstone of the spiritual disciplines ...
